AROUND THE WORLD.—On Saturday, Morris Frankel and Wm. Winkle, who are out in the interest of the Smithsonian Institute, New York, were in the city, and paid this office a call. They are making a trip around the world on foot, in search of botanical, geographical and historical researches. They started from New York without a cent, since Aug. 18th. They walked from the latter place to Savannah and from there to this city, a distance of 2,900 miles. They went from here to Lexington, from which place they will go to Louisville and the South. The whole distance that they are expected to cover will be 20,000 miles. They are to receive $40,000 when the trip is completed.

A Fatal Railroad Accident.

THE afternoon train from Maysville, yesterday, struck the buggy of Wm. Lynam, at a crossing half mile south of Carlisle, injuring Mr. Lynam so that he died last night, and badly bruising his wife about the face. They are about 70 years of age. The buggy was demolished, but the horse was not hurt. The engineer whistled for the crossing, but they claim not to have heard it. They were placed on the train and taken back to Carlisle, where medical attention was given them.

CANDIES.—Miss Bessie Holliday's candies will be on sale at Mrs. Johnson's book store.

Arrested On a Serious Charge.

J. P. Bramblett, a wealthy bachelor of Carlisle, was arrested yesterday at that place on a warrant sworn out by a Mrs. Shaw, aged about 25 years, charging him with attempted rape. There were numerous rumors on the streets yesterday afternoon to the effect that a mob was organizing to lynch the accused, and that a race was on between the Sheriff and his deputies and the mob. The News called up Carlisle over the telephone and learned that there was nothing in the rumors save the mere fact of his being arrested. Mr. Bramblett is a very influential citizen of Nicholas county and his friends claim he will have no trouble of proving his innocence.

SOCIALDOM.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Tuesday afternoon.—Mrs. James Duncan Taylor will entertain at Six Hand Euchre.

Thursday afternoon.—Mrs. Charlton Alexander, Jr., will be hostess to the Six Hand Euchre club.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Taylor will entertain the "As You Like It" club, at Mr. Geo. R. Bell's, on Duncan avenue.

Thursday evening, Miss Iva Collins entertained in honor of her charming guest, Miss Holly, of Payne's Depot. The entertainment was quite unique and full of interest throughout. The entire lower floor was thrown together and brilliantly lighted, with pretty ferns and plants occupying the corners and about the doors. It was called a "library contest," there being illustrations on cards representing names of popular books and authors. These were found on mantles, tables, in fact, in every conceivable place. To the ones guessing the greatest number of correct answers, pretty prizes were given. Miss Frances Mann won the ladies' prize, a beautiful copy of Tennyson's poems. The gentleman's prize fell to Mr. Clarence Thomas, which was a miniature suit case, filled with cigars. After the prizes were awarded, a delightful lunch was served. The guests present were: Misses Holley Ethel Moody, Alleen Fox, Margaret Butler, Ollie Butler, Fannie Mann, Sythe Kern, Sallie Young, Elizabeth Ashurst, Mary Lou Fithian, Milda McMillan, Calla Thomas, — Hayden; Graham Kerr, Clarence Thomas, Albert Hinton, Oak Hinton, Will Hinton, Edwin Sweeney, Matt Talbot, Ed Tucker, Talbot Clay, Charlie McMillan, John Spears and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collins.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Roger, of Maysville, will entertain with a progressive dinner this evening, in honor of Miss Gertrude Renick, of this city. The Knight Templar, of that city, will entertain with a card party Thursday evening in her honor. Many functions have been given complimentary to her visit to the Misses Rogers.

—Misses Sue Buckner and Martha Clay entertained the "As You Like It" club Friday evening, at the home of Miss Clay, in the country. The evening was spent in playing progressive euchre and after the prizes were given, lunch was served. The first prizes were received by Miss Margaret Butler and Mr. Clarence Kenney, a pretty Egyptian picture and a cigar holder. The consolation prizes fell to Miss Sallie Lockhart and Mr. Walker Buckner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney G. Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wornall, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Taylor; Misses Alleen Fox, Ethel Moody, Frances Mason, Laura Lloyd, Fannie Holly, Ollie Butler, Margaret Butler, Mary Brent, Iva Collins, Lazzette Dickson, Fannie Johnson, Eddie Spears, Mary Lou Fithian, Milda McMillan, Calla Thomas, Amelia Clay and Sallie Lockhart; Messrs. Chas. McMillan, Hugh Brent, John Brennan, W. M. Goodloe, Oak Hinton, Will Hinton, Albert Hinton, John Spears, Hume Payne, Edwin Sweeney, Clell Turney, Duncan Bell, Clarence Thomas, Clarence Kenney, Ben Woodford, Jim Woodford, Buckner Woodford, Jr., Walker Buckner, Jim Buckner, Tom Buckner, Chas. May, Henry May, Talbot Clay, Burnet Bean, John W. Young, Dr. M. H. Daily and Dr. Chas. Daugherty.

—Sunday's Lexington Leader had the following: Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Curry will give an informal party at their home on North Broadway, in honor of Mrs. Darling, of Cincinnati, and Miss Thomason, of Chicago, guests of the Misses Sharp. Mrs. and Mrs. Curry and their bright, pretty children have made several visits to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson here and will be remembered as most popular visitors.
